Our Church Covenant At the Congregational Church of Needham, United Church of Christ, we strive to be a joyful, welcoming Christian Community. We seek to be faithful in a world torn by suffering, injustice, oppression, and war. We are inspired by God, Christ's Ministry, and the examples of other faithful people. We join together in worship and song, fellowship, study, and mission to embrace the risks and challenges of continuing Christ's ministry. We struggle to live out our faith in the world by furthering justice and peace, witnessing to the truth, and proclaiming God's love and mercy for all people.

Our Open and Affirming Covenant We believe that all people are created in the image of God, who loves each of us as we are. Following the example of Jesus, we welcome and affirm all people, including those of every age, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression; every racial, ethnic and cultural identity, and country of origin; every faith background, family configuration and economic situation; every mental and physical ability and health status; every life experience and circumstance. We strive to be an example of God's extravagant welcome and to live these beliefs in our worship, language, actions and relationships. We invite all people who desire to join us in this journey of faith to share in the full life and ministry of this church.

If you are a guest with us today, a special welcome to you! We'd love to know that you're here. Please sign in using the QR code at the top of this page or the physical attendance sheet in the lobby. A Six-Week Overview of the Bible for Anyone & Everyone Sundays through 10/25 @ 8:30-9:30am, on-site in the church library & online via Zoom at https://us06web.zoom.us/j/3608741029?omn=83460325912

Have you ever found the Bible hard to understand? Have you ever wished you had a better sense of how its many books, stories, people, and ideas fit together? Or perhaps you simply have questions about the Bible that you would enjoy exploring with other people. If so, please consider joining us for A Six-Week Overview of the Bible, Sunday mornings from 8:30–9:30am, on-site in the church library and on Zoom. The course will run six Sundays through 10/25. No prior Bible knowledge is required. Our goal will be to explore the Bible's big picture together—what it is, how it is organized, the story it tells, and some of the questions it raises. Clark Curtis, Avery Casper-Filbin, and Sue Turner will facilitate the course. We hope you'll join us for an opportunity to get to know the Bible—and one another—a little better.

God: A (re)Confirming Faith Sermon with Brunch to Follow
10/11 @ 10am, on-site & online via Zoom at
http://zoom.us/j/907548568

We can't say everything there is to know about God. All our language about God, even our direct experience of God is as limited as our finite human comprehension. But we can say something, even something true, just at a slant. God isn't a father, but God is like a father. God isn't a rock, or a mother hen, or the "ground of all being" or "that than which no greater can be conceived," but God is like all these and more. God is always more, and the moment we limit God to "our poor reach of mind," we've made yet another idol. Our spiritual ancestors wrestled with this question for millennia. Now it's our turn. Who/ what/ how/ where/ when/ is God for you at this point in your life, and why? (Acts 17:16-34)

Being Holy Means Getting Messy with special music by The Lincoln Traditional Jazz Band 10/18 @ 10am, on-site & online via Zoom at
http://zoom.us/j/907548568

In If Grace Is True: Why God Will Save Every Person, authors Philip Gulley and James Mulholland write: "I know a woman who is fanatically clean. Her home is spotless. She dons white gloves and moves from room to room, checking for dust. . . .Sometimes we talk as if God is similarly obsessed," as though to be truly holy means to remove oneself (and one's church) from contact with the less-than-perfect world. But God knows–and Jesus shows–being holy means engaging with the messy world, trusting God's grace to anchor us in justice, peace, and compassion. (Leviticus 10:selected verses)

Be Not Afraid
An All-Ages Hands-On SermonCraft Sunday 10/25 @ 10am, on-site & online via Zoom at
http://zoom.us/j/907548568

Halloween is a time for friendly, fun, imaginary frights. But sometimes actually frightening things happen in our lives. Whenever that happened to people in the Bible, God would encourage them to "Be not afraid"--not because those things weren't actually scary but because God promises to always be with us when things go bump in the night, and God's love is stronger than any scary thing we can imagine. Instead of our usual sort of sermon, this worship service will include an all-ages craft for us to share together.

LGBT Asylum Task Force Annual Gala, "We Persist"
Saturday, 10/10 @ 5:30-11pm, Mechanics Hall, 321 Main St, Worcester, MA

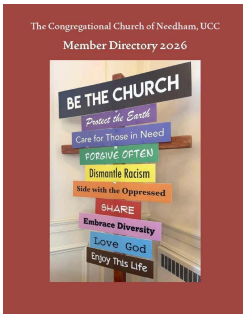
The LGBT Asylum Task Force, a ministry of Hadwen Park Congregational Church, UCC, in Worcester, provides housing, food, clothing, financial and personal support as well as legal assistance to LGBT folks seeking political asylum in the United States to escape oppression and violence in their home countries. Their biggest and most important fundraiser of the year is their annual gala, this year themed, appropriately, "We Persist." Won't you consider buying tickets and attending in support of the incredible work they're doing? Tickets are on sale now at this link: https://givebutter.com/c/tfgala26. When you purchase your tickets, please let our own Kathie Carpenter know via email so she can keep track of our congregation's support for these new neighbors in need.



New Church Directory!

We're delighted to announce that after far too long a time, we have a brand new church directory of church members, which includes a section of beautiful full-color photos. If you haven't picked one up yet and would like to get your own copy, they are available every Sunday after worship. (Just ask Rev. John.) If you are an official member of the church or a consistent participant, we'd also be happy to send you a physical copy. Simply email Robin Bevilacqua in the church office at office@needhamucc.org, and she will verify your information and send you one via USPS. You can also arrange a time to pick one up in person, if you prefer.

Volunteer for Trunk or Treat 2026!

- We are looking for volunteers to serve in the following roles on Saturday, 10/24
- Volunteers arrive at 1pm and leave by 5pm

Trunk Decorators: Let your creative juices flow as you design and execute a themed trunk! Prefer to pick up a pre-made kit from Target or Amazon? That's cool, too! No matter how detailed or DIY, your trunk will be a welcome addition to our roster. Your friendly smile and a treat for the kids (which we'll provide) are really all that are needed to make your trunk a success. And if you need ideas or supplies, let us know in advance and we can help you out!

Runners: If you've ever thought being a personal assistant for a day could be fun, this "all purpose" role is the one for you! You'll help with set-up, clean-up, and everything in between. Your primary job during the event is to distribute and refill treat and candy buckets to our trunks. You will 100% get your steps in.

Welcome Tablers: An extrovert's dream job – you'll welcome families to our event. Give them a trick or treat bag if needed and thank them for coming. If anyone wants to make a donation to help support the event, you can help them by pointing out the QR code, Square card reader, and donation box. If someone needs a bathroom during the event, you'll guide them inside.

Photo Attendants: Simply ask folks if they'd like you to take a picture of them with their kids. It's that easy.

This is My Father's World

This is my Father's world; and to my listening ears, all nature sings, and round me rings the music of the spheres.
This is my Father's world; I rest me in the thought of rocks and trees, of skies and seas, his hand the wonders wrought.

This is my Mother's world; the birds their carols raise, the morning light, the flowers bright, declare their Maker's praise.
This is my Mother's world; she shines in all that's fair;
in rustling grass I hear her pass; she speaks to me everywhere.

This is my Maker's world; oh, let me ne'er forget that though the wrong seems oft so strong, God is the ruler yet.
This is my Maker's world; why should my heart be sad?
The heavens ring; let nature sing. God reigns; let earth be glad.

Text: M.D. Babcock (1901); Tune: TERRA BEATA

How Can We Name a Love

How can we name a love that wakens heart and mind, in dwelling all we know or think or do or seek or find?
Within our daily world, in every human face, love's echoes sound and God is found, hid in the common place.

If we awoke to life upheld by loving care that asked no great reward but firm, assured, was simply there, we can, with parents' names, describe, and thus adore,
love unconfined, a father kind, a mother strong and sure.

When people share a task, and strength and skills unite in projects old or new, to make or do with shared delight, our Friend and Partner's will is better understood, that all should share, create, and care, and know that life is good.

So, in a hundred names, each day we all can meet a presence, sensed and shown at work, at home, or in the street.
Yet names and titles all shine in a brighter sun:
in Christ alone is love full grown and life and hope begun.

Text: B. Wren (1973); Tune: TERRA BEATA
