People are illogical, unreasonable, and self-centered. Love them anyway. If you do good, people will accuse you of selfish ulterior motives. Do good anyway. If you are successful, you will win false friends and true enemies. Succeed anyway. The good you do today will be forgotten tomorrow. Do good anyway. Honesty and frankness make you vulnerable. Be honest and frank anyway. The biggest men and women with the biggest ideas can be shot down by the smallest men and women with the smallest minds. Think big anyway. People favor underdogs but follow only top dogs. Fight for a few underdogs anyway. What you spend years building may be destroyed overnight. Build anyway. People really need help but may attack you if you do help them. Help people anyway. Give the world the best you have and you'll get kicked in the teeth. Give the world the best you have anyway.

WELCOME Rev. John MacIver Gage, senior minister

CALL TO WORSHIP

One: We come to worship a God we cannot comprehend, in the name of Jesus whom we have never met, drawn by the Spirit we cannot see, believing They are with us now.

Many: Such is our foolishness in faith.

One: We come to hear from a book, words and stories of ancient times not written to us or about us, believing there is fresh wisdom for us here.

Many: Such is our foolishness in faith.

One: We come to dream a world of justice, peace, and compassion that does not exist, to preach it by our actions, build it with our lives, believing it ought to be.

Many: Such is our foolishness in faith.

One: For the message of the manger, cross, and empty tomb are foolish in the eyes of a world possessed by the love of power,

Many: but we believe that in God's foolish love there is power to liberate, transform, and save.

All: Let us worship God together in spirit and in truth, in word and in deed.

SHARING OUR PRAYERS (“O God, hear our prayer”)

OPEN AND AFFIRMING LITANY OF REDEDICATION

One: Twenty-five years ago, this congregation opened our hearts, did the hard, joyful work of listening, praying, and discerning, and claimed a call from God to be Open to and Affirming of the full inclusion of lesbian and gay folks in church and society. Since then, we have celebrated Pride with our queer kin not just one month a year but every Sunday, every day. And following the movement of the spirit, we have expanded our understanding of Pride to include bisexual, transgender, and nonbinary folks, and we have widened our vision of Pride to see the intersections of other kinds of identity and oppression. So, on this 25th anniversary, we reaffirm our Open and Affirming commitment:

Many: Because our Pride cannot be satisfied with rainbow flags.

One: In this season, with the onslaught of policies and laws aimed at maligning and even criminalizing and erasing queer, trans, and nonbinary people and youth in particular, we are being called to connect with local organizers and get involved in supporting queer justice.

Many: Because our Pride cannot end with marches.

One: In this season, as ignorance-fueled hate takes aim at the civil and human rights of our queer and trans kin, we are being called to take steps to educate ourselves, our families, and our communities about queer and trans lives and flourishing.

Many: Because our Pride cannot stop when the dance party is over.

One: In this season, as political rhetoric, public statements, and executive orders create and reinforce a culture of anti-queer, anti-trans bullying, discrimination, and violence, we are being called to re-engage the Open and Affirming process to strengthen the welcome, inclusion, and justice experienced in our church and community.

Many: Because our Pride cannot be limited to the queer and trans communities.

One: In this season, when the powers that be seek to divide and conquer, we are being called to work for justice at the multiple intersections of humanity: liberation for Black, indigenous, and other communities of color; liberation for immigrants; liberation for women; liberation for all, including our oppressors; liberation for the earth.

Many: Because our Pride cannot be complete until God's kin-dom comes.

One: In this season, God is calling us. How will we respond?

ALL: Here we are. Send us.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

(using these or whichever words are closest to your own heart)

Our Father/Mother in heaven, holy is your name. Your reign come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. And forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For yours is the kin-dom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Next Round of Potluck Suppers

Sunday, 3/2: SIGN UP BY 2/16

Back by popular demand, our next round of small group potluck suppers will be held in members' homes to bring us together and help us get to know one another better in a cozy evening of connection and great food. And this go-round we're adding a potluck at the church specifically for families with young children with room for them to play safely together. Email Kristin Mollerus (kristin@mollerus.net) by 2/16 with the names of those attending from your household (and whether you're interested in hosting). We'll do the rest to match you with a host home so you can coordinate meal contributions with your group. Looking forward to feasting and fun together!

JLTH

Micah 6:8

Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty!

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
Early in the morning our song shall rise to thee.
Holy, holy, holy! merciful and mighty!
God in three persons, blessed Trinity!

Holy, holy, holy! all the saints adore thee,
casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
cherubim and seraphim, falling down before thee,
who, wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.

Holy, holy, holy! though the darkness hide thee,
though the eye of sinfulness thy glory may not see,
only thou art holy: there is none, beside thee,
perfect in power, in love and purity.

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
All thy works shall praise thy name, in earth and sky and sea.
Holy, holy, holy! merciful and mighty!
God in three persons, blessed Trinity!

Will You Come and Follow Me (The Summons)

Will you come and follow Me if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know and never be the same?
Will you let My love be shown, will you let My name be known,
will you let My life be grown in you and you in Me?

Will you leave yourself behind if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare?
Will you let Me answer prayer in you and you in Me?

Will you let the blinded see if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean and do such as this unseen,
and admit to what I mean in you and you in Me?

Will you love the "you" you hide if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around,
through My sight and touch and sound in you and you in Me?

Lord, your summons echoes true when You but call my name.
Let me turn and follow You and never be the same?
In Your company I'll go where Your love and foot-steps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grown in You and you in me!
